NOTES

1. Please note that if you hold a deposit or borrowing account jointly with another person or other persons (or have otherwise jointly entered into a qualifying specified transaction giving rise to membership of the Provident Society), each joint holder will continue to be a member of the Provident Society unless he or she has completed, signed and returned an opt-out form.
2. Under the Provident Society's existing membership points scheme (as referred to in the Provident Society's Rules)(the "Membership Points Scheme"), where one joint account holder or, as applicable, person who has entered into a qualifying specified transaction, ceases to be a member of the Provident Society, this will not affect the rights of any other account holder who is and remains a member of the Provident Society for the award of membership points (if any) under the Membership Points Scheme.
3. The Provident Society complies with its obligations under the Data Protection Act 1998 and will use the personal information you provide us in this opt-out form to (1) comply with your wishes if you do not wish to become a member of the Provident Society and (2) as otherwise set out in our Privacy Policy available on the Provident Society website at krps.com. Should you have any questions about how the Provident Society uses your personal information, please contact us at members@krps.com.
